

REPORT ON "MAIN BHI ABHIMANYUN"

On October 7, 2024, a seminar was organized at St. Montfort School, Bhopal, under the impactful mission "Main hu Abhimanyu" by the Police Headquarters, Bhopal. The event focused on raising awareness about vital social issues, including gender equality, the protection of women both at home and in public spaces, etc. Through this initiative, students were guided on the necessity of fostering respect and safety for women in all spheres of life. Some video presentations were shown to the students and asked related questions.

The seminar was moderated by the senior officials, including the Superintendent of Police, Mr. Prashant and Sub-Divisional Officer, Ms. Priya who delivered inspiring speeches. They emphasized the importance of empathy, awareness, and a sense of responsibility among young individuals towards building a more equitable society. The officials encouraged students to stand against social injustices, become proactive in ensuring the safety of women, and contribute to shaping a world free of violence and gender discrimination. The program left the students empowered, motivated to be the change-makers who uphold values of equality and compassion.

The principal expressed heartfelt gratitude to the officials for spearheading the "Main hu Abhimanyu" mission and commended their efforts in spreading such crucial awareness across schools.

Archana Prasad