

CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATION 2024

Children's Day is celebrated across the world to honour children and recognize their importance in society. In India, it is celebrated on November 14th, the birth anniversary of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of India, who was known for his affection towards children and his belief in their potential. Such a day was celebrated at St. Montfort school, Bhopal through a special assembly to celebrate the spirit of childhood with various cultural programs designed to entertain, inspire, and empower the children of the school.

The celebration kicked off at 8:00 AM with the lighting of the lamp, followed by garlanding the photo of Pt. Nehru by the principal of the School, Rev. Bro. Monachan K.K., Vice Principal and Coordinators of the School. Various performances by the Teachers of the school were held in the morning assembly. Teachers from different grades showcased colourful and energetic dances, including Prayer dance and modern styles; a group of teachers sang motivational songs and popular children's songs and Qawaali which filled the air with joy. Teachers also staged a short play focusing on the theme "School's Life," highlighting the importance of embracing differences and living in harmony.

The senior staff of the school, Mr. Sanjay Wanve & Mrs. Jenea Das urged the students in their importance of the day addressal to always strive for excellence and to be responsible citizens in the future. The Principal, Rev. Bro. Monachan K.K. gave an inspiring speech emphasizing the importance of children's rights, education and the need for nurturing a positive environment for learning and growth. The school's junior & senior cabinet members thanked all the teachers, management and volunteers for their efforts in making the event a memorable one.

The Children's Day celebration was a grand success, with students, teachers and management coming together to celebrate the joy and innocence of childhood. The event not only allowed the teachers to showcase their talents but also served as a reminder of the importance of nurturing young minds for a better tomorrow. The program ended on a patriotic note wherein all came together to sing National Anthem to give it a perfect finish.
