

Christmas Celebration at St. Montfort School

On December 23, 2024, St. Montfort School, Patel Nagar, Bhopal, held a special prayer assembly to celebrate Christmas. Students from classes IV D, E, and F and VI D, E, and F participated in the event.

The assembly began with a warm welcome for the chief guest, Provincial Superior, Rev. Bro. Thampy Alex, who was also presented with a lovely bouquet. The chief guest, along with the school principal, vice principal, and coordinators, lit the ceremonial lamp to mark the start of the program, followed by an enchanting prayer song.

The Head Girl and Head Boy conveyed birthday wishes to the chief guest and extended greetings for Christmas and the New Year on behalf of all students. The program included presentations explaining the significance of Christmas, carols and a play depicting the birth of Jesus Christ.

Students also performed beautiful dances that received enthusiastic applause from the audience. In his speech, Rev. Bro. T. Alex spoke about the importance of Christmas and its true meaning. He praised the students' excellent performances and encouraged them to continue their good work.

The event concluded with students expressing their gratitude to everyone present, followed by the National Anthem.

Archana Prasad