Report on English Day Celebration

On April 23rd, our school celebrated English Day with great enthusiasm and creativity, commemorating the birth of William Shakespeare, the world's most renowned playwright and poet. The event was organized by the English Department, with active participation from students across all grades.

The day began with a special morning assembly, where students presented a brief biography of Shakespeare, highlighting his major works. A short skit was performed by the students of classes VI to IX capturing the dramatic intensity of Shakespeare's writing and briefing of Importance of English language in our life. Master Akshaj Verma of class IV A dressed up as famous Shakespearean characters and delivered iconic Sonnet showcasing his acting and speaking skills.

The highlight of the day was the announcing the names of the students who had good cursive handwriting and they were appreciated by the certificates.

The celebration concluded with a heartfelt speech by the Principal Rev. Bro. Monachan K K praising the students' efforts and encouraging them to delve deeper into English literature. The event not only paid tribute to William Shakespeare but also inspired a love for the English language and its literary heritage among students.
