

“Teaching Gen Alpha: The New Challenges”

A one-day seminar on the topic “Teaching Gen Alpha: The New Challenges” was conducted at St. Montfort School, Bhopal on 10th June 2026 from 8:30 a.m. onwards in school auditorium. The seminar was led by the renowned educator, psychologist, and global missionary leader, Dr. Bro. George Palackal.

The programme commenced with a warm welcome of the resource person by the Principal of the school, Rev. Bro. Monachan K.K., along with the Vice Principal, Rev. Bro. Mathias Minz. The dignitaries extended their heartfelt greetings and appreciation to the resource person for sharing his valuable insights and experiences with the teaching fraternity.

The seminar was thoughtfully designed into five engaging and enriching sessions titled:

1. Understand Gen Alpha
2. Enter Their World
3. Transform Teaching
4. Handle Challenges
5. Become the Teacher They Need

During the sessions, Dr. Bro. George Palackal highlighted the evolving mindset, learning behaviour, and emotional needs of Generation Alpha students. He emphasized the importance of adapting teaching methodologies to suit the digital and fast-changing world in which today’s learners are growing. Through interactive discussions, practical examples, and motivational insights, he encouraged teachers to become more empathetic, innovative, and student-centric in their approach.

The seminar also focused on classroom challenges faced by educators in the modern era and offered practical strategies to create meaningful engagement, discipline, and emotional connection with students. The resource person inspired teachers to become mentors and facilitators who can positively influence the holistic development of children.

The seminar proved to be highly informative, inspiring, and thought-provoking for all the teachers present. It provided a valuable platform for reflection, learning, and professional growth. The staff members expressed their gratitude for the enriching experience and appreciated the efforts taken by the school management in organizing such a meaningful programme.

The seminar concluded on a positive note with renewed enthusiasm among the teachers to embrace innovative practices and become the kind of educators that Gen Alpha students truly need.
